The buffalo could be the proudest animal to ever roam this earth. "It's that pride that attracted me to them and the reason we raise them on our ranch," says Mike Mallia, founder of The Mallia Law Firm. That same pride is evident in the philosophy of The Mallia Law Firm, a firm that is among the most elite of Texas' plaintiff's firms.

"We feel that if we take a case that we do not completely believe in, we violate our duty to our existing and future clients," says Mallia. "With more than 30 years of credibility built on this principle, we have reason to be proud of our reputation."

Mallia's record and reputation has brought recognition from the country's most prestigious organizations. He has been honored by The Best Lawyers in America and Who's Who in American Law; additionally, Texas Monthly named him as one of Texas' Super Lawyers. Mike has attained the rank of Advocate in the American Board of Trial Advocates, an organization composed of the best trial attorneys in America.

"We believe that clients ought to be comfortable with their attorney. If you do not feel that your attorney is competent or dedicated to your case, chances are that you're probably right," says Mallia. "There is a direct correlation between the best attorney and the best results."
